Your Preceptor Guide

MISSION

Frontier Nursing University is a private, non-profit, non-residential graduate school of nursing offering community-based, distance education programs leading to the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree, the Master of Science in Nursing degree and/or post-graduate certificates in advanced practice nursing specialties. Our mission is to provide accessible nurse-midwifery and nurse practitioner education to prepare competent, entrepreneurial, ethical, and compassionate leaders in primary care to serve all individuals with an emphasis on women and families in diverse, rural, and underserved populations.

Who We Are:

- Over 80 years of experience in graduate nursing and midwifery education
- Oldest and largest continually operating nurse-midwifery program in the U.S.
- First family nurse practitioner program in the U.S.
- Pioneered the first midwifery program in the U.S. in 1989
- Over 5,000 nurses and midwives have graduated with advanced practice degrees
- Students and alumni represent every U.S. state and many foreign countries

"And you think to yourself, 'I'm not that person.' But you are that person. You just have to step out there and do it."

-Susan Clapp, CNM
FNU alumna and preceptor

Creating a Culture of Caring

Why Frontier Nursing University?
